Who we are

We understand carers need support in their vital role of keeping children and young people safe. My Forever Family NSW supplements the role of the Department of Communities and Justice and non-government agencies, to support carers in providing the best outcomes for the children and young people in their care. All authorised carers, guardians and adoptive parents from out-of-home care, can access our support service.

Carer support line – We have time to listen, information to help you care for your children and young people, and resources to share.

Training – We offer a range of high-quality, FREE training options that are easy to access for authorised carers. Whether it's a face-to-face or online training event or a webinar you can view in your own time, our training options ensure that carers feel supported, informed and equipped in their critical role of caring for children.

Carer support groups – Join a local group for regular catchups to share strategies and experiences. Call us for more information or visit our website for a list of groups in your area. In the current environment some groups are organising meetings online for peer support.

Online Lounge Room – Grab a cuppa and join us in the Online Lounge Room for 40 minutes virtual connection and support with other carers and one of our special guest experts on a subject relevant to you and your family.

Carer Portal – Register online through our Carer Portal for access to resources, training, events and our online library. By signing up to the Carer Portal you will receive regular communications and updates on upcoming opportunities and changes to the sector.

Ask your case worker to help you register and become part of My Forever Family NSW

We are committed to working with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations, communities and individuals to provide services in line with the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Child Placement Principles.

If you need an interpreter, please call TIS National on 131 450 and ask them to call us on 1300 782 975 during business hours.
